IF YOU WANT A THING ASK FOR IT

In a dignified manner, Business Comes to Those First and Surest, Who Give the Public to Understand That They're Alive and Kicking. The Bulletin Reaches the People.

THERE was another little "song and dance" at the city council chamber last night, as recorded in the news columns elsewhere.

ANOTHER case of a negro choking the wife of a citizen is recorded this morning, but the lady was equal to the emergency, giving the rascal such a fight that he was glad to get away with bullets flying after him at a lively rate. But this case, like the long list of other similar cases, does not interest the governor, or his attorney general.

THERE is every reason to believe that Senator Hanna is playing a very deep game to win the Republican nomination from Roosevelt in which his repeated protestations that he is "not a candidate" is an important part. According to the dispatches this morning he is striking a blow to one of Roosevelt's numerous weak spots, by seeking the favor of union labor with which the president has "quarrelled" himself through his action in the Miller case. The Rough Rider needs to keep his weather eye on Uncle Mark, and he knows it.

SEVERAL occasions are in prospect for Cairo in the near future which need to be kept in mind by the people of Cairo, to the end that proper and timely preparation may be made for them. Perhaps chief among them is the meeting of the county officers of the state and the Southern Illinois Teachers' Association. For the entertainment of the former the Merchants' League seems to have taken some steps, and at last night's council meeting, a communication from Mr. E. A.
Smith, of that organization, was presented to the city council, asking for an appropriation of $100 to meet the expenses of entertainment. This will probably be granted. For the care of the school teachers, no steps have yet been taken; but doubtless everything possible will be done in due time—everything possible must be done, for Cairo's reputation will be at stake with a large number of very good people. It is estimated that the county officials meeting will bring six or seven hundred prominent men to the city and the teachers' association will comprise about twice that number of men and women, whose mission in life is the highest and whose pay averages the lowest. Cairo needs to do her whole duty by both occasions and—let's not forget about it.

MR. HEARST AS A CANDIDATE

By far the strongest plea yet made for Wm. R. Hearst as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president was made in a communication addressed to and published in the New York Herald by Arthur Brisbane, recently, and reproduced editorially in Mr. Hearst's Chicago American which reached here yesterday. It is reproduced below this morning, because The Bulletin wishes its readers to be fully posted on the merits of the men who offer themselves for their service. Mr. Hearst is certainly making a strong canvass for public favor.
The Bulletin has only the welfare of the people generally in mind and believes that their interests in national affairs can be best served by the Democratic party.
It is not committed to any individual as the Democratic standard bearer in 1934, and is entirely willing that the just claims of all shall be fairly considered by the people and by the convention.

To the Editor of the Herald: May I inject a few FACTS into the present discussion of W. R. Hearst and his probable nomination for the presidency?

Mr. Hearst is in his forty-first year.
He has supported Cleveland three times and Bryan twice. He has been a loyal and active Democrat and a newspaper owner and editor for twenty years. So much for the statement that he is an inexperienced youth.

Mr. Hearst is NOT a demagogue.
He is NOT a violent radical. He believes that nothing is more "conservative" than adherence to the fundamental American principles that have made this country, through guaranteeing to every citizen Mr. Jefferson's famous prescription—"life, liberty and pursuit of happiness."

The agents of the trusts, who seem to dislike the idea of Hearst's name on a national ticket, denounce him as "an enemy of the business interests."

Mr. Hearst owns newspapers in four great American cities. The editor of the Herald and every other intelligent American knows that nothing is more sensitive to general prosperity than a lively newspaper. Of all the country's business interests none depends upon the general prosperity of the merchant and manufacturer as much as does the newspaper.

So much for the charge that Hearst would be an enemy to the business interests of the country.

To act as president of the United States a man ought to be in sympathy with the different classes of the population. And he ought to be personally a man of executive ability and judgment.

As to the executive ability and the judgment an examination of Mr.
Hearst's newspapers and of the success that he has achieved in a difficult field in a very short time is recommended.

He has successfully studied, represented and led public opinion in Chicago, New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles, where his newspapers are published, and elsewhere his newspapers are felt. The support given to him by the mass of the dwellers in the cities proves that he understands the city man. But his interests are not limited to those who live in cities.
He owns several large wheat farms and cattle ranches and has, consequently, a knowledge of and sympathy with the requirements of the agricultural classes.

One of the most conspicuous and energetic fights in which he has used his newspapers has been waged in the effort to protect the farmers and woolgrowers by regulating and discouraging manufacturer of shoddy.

A man, to make a president, should have demonstrated his capacity to put the interests of the majority ahead of his own private interests.

Mr. Hearst believes in public ownership of public utilities—street cars, railroads, etc. And he works persistently to bring about public ownership, although he is a large stockholder in various institutions that would be affected by public ownership.

Mr. Hearst advocates persistently a income tax, and he advocates a GRADUATED income tax, although, as everybody knows, he would be affected by that far more seriously than many of those that oppose the just tax.

Mr. Hearst believes in good wages for good workmen and pays the highest wages, encouraging the worker in the effort to make enough to keep his wife comfortable and his children in school. This he does, although one of the largest individual employers of skilled union labor in America. Anybody who has occasionally heard his conscientious business managers be-reaching him to talk less about high wages would realize that Mr. Hearst's socket does not control his principles.

Now, a question that all "practical politicians" will ask:

What is Hearst's actual political strength?

To start with he polled the largest vote ever given to a congressman in New York.

The percentage by which he beat Coker, who was running for governor at the same time, would have elected a Democratic governor. It the candidate for governor had been as strong personally and politically as Hearst, Odell would have been defeated.

Mr. Hearst's majority in his district was 6,000 more than that of McCallan in the same district one year later.
It is not necessary to say that everything that practical politics could do was done for McCallan.

In his district Hearst's majority exceeded by 3,000 that of Parker in the same territory, and this in spite of the fact that Parker had an enormous advantage in that there was no opposing ticket. It made no nomination against him.

Mr. Hearst's district in New York City embraces part of the far West Side, where men work hard; part of Fifth Avenue, where men live comfortably. Part of the Broadway business section. Therefore his is a strikingly representative majority.

It is evident that Mr. Hearst is strong in Illinois, in view of the fact that "practical politicians" with private schemes were afraid to take the convention to Chicago, fearing that the inhabitants of the city would stampede the convention for Hearst.

Hearst is a loyal Democrat. He has given the party loyal support throughout both Bryan campaigns, although he is not an advocate of free silver. He is not a factional candidate. His interests are legitimate business interests. He represents legitimate American progress and prosperity.

with good wages for those who work and big rewards for those who have brains and executive ability.

He believes that the creation of wealth is not more important than the distribution of wealth and the promotion of prosperity. For that reason, and also because he has a sense of justice, he fights the trusts and all tendencies to excessive concentration of wealth through criminal monopoly.

Mr. Hearst believes that universal prosperity is dependent upon the purchasing power of the masses and upon the protection of those that are industrial and frugal.

If he is elected president of the United States it will be a bad day for promoters of national get-rich-quick schemes.

It will be a good day for all of those whose interests and wishes demand the prosperous development of the entire nation on Democratic lines.

Stage at Cairo, Jan. 22, 1934, 20.6.

River Forecasts.

The OHIO—From Evansville to CAIRO, and the MISSISSIPPI from below St. Louis to CAIRO, will rise rapidly during the next three days. The rise at CAIRO will continue during the next six days or longer.

The TENNESSEE—From Florence to the mouth, will rise during the next three days.

Gorges at Cincinnati and Louisville have broken and heavy ice is now passing those points.

General River News.

The stage of the river at 4 p.m. yesterday was 11.1, showing a rise of 1.8 in twenty-four hours.

The rise in the river has made it safe for the Dick Fowler to make her trips between Cairo and Paducah and she will be in port today. Owing to the congested condition of freight and in order to relieve the wants of the smaller river towns, the boat will also make a trip Sunday.

The U. S. Snagboat Horatio G.
Wright was in port last night.

Heavy ice will probably be seen soon floating down the Ohio river since the breaking of the gorges at Cincinnati and Pittsburg.

ADDITIONAL PERSONAL AND LO- CAL GENERAL.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Woodward are enjoying their visit to Cairo. Their list of old time friends leave them no cause to feel that they are not welcome. They are guests of Maj. and Mrs. P. P. Gooding while here.

Last evening the first eighteen weeks of the present school term was closed and the second half of the term will begin next Monday. Parents will receive reports for the first half of the term.

Prof. Clendenen has received notice that the Illinois Central and Mobile & Ohio railroad companies have granted a one-fare rate for the meeting of the Southern Illinois Teachers' association which will be held in Cairo, March 21st to April 2nd. All the railroads in the thirty-six counties embraced in the membership of the association will grant a like low rate, and it confidently expected that from one thousand to thirteen hundred people will be here.

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT

By M. E. Church Choir and Germania Maennerchor

WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

MRS. LOARING CLARK AND MISS MARTHA TYLER, OF ST. LOUIS, WERE SOLOISTS.

The concert given last evening at the opera house by the M. E. church choir and the Germania Maennerchor was a pronounced success in every way.

Mr. George Parsons, the director and the members of the choir and the Maennerchor are to be congratulated on the merits of the entertainment and those who attended are indebted to them for a most enjoyable evening.
The audience was large and appreciative, and the singers were generous in responding to encores.

The opening selection by the Maen-nerchor, a Bundeslied by Lachner was one of their best numbers and showed to advantage the good work of which this organization is capable. The people of Cairo are proud of the Maen-nerchor, and during the whole evening there were repeated evidences of the high regard they have for this society.

The quartet by Messrs. Hasenjaeger, Day, Raeth and Schuh was so well sung and received that they were compelled to respond to two vociferous encores. They gave the Lieber Michel in a manner that cleverly brought out the rich humor of the selection.

Mrs. Loaring Clark sang an Aria from Rossini's Semiramide, which in a most delightful and satisfactory manner showed her splendid execution and fine style. She had not been heard in Cairo for some time, but has become a great favorite here. For her encore she sang a delightful ballad.

Miss Martha Tyler, of St. Louis, who gave a recital here a few months ago, was on the program for nine songs.
They were beautifully sung. Miss Tyler's clear enunciation is particularly pleasing in her ballads. Her selectious covered a large range, wide enough to display all the powers of her beautiful voice. Her best numbers were, perhaps, "My Abode," by Schubert; "To Sivella," by Sessauer and "Still Unexpressed," by Jacobs-Bond.
Miss Tyler was obliged, also to answer an encore.

The singing of the M. E. church choir was of the highest order. The closing number on the program, "Son of the Vikings," was particularly fine. The choir, under the able direction of Mr.
Parsons, accomplished work of the best kind.

The extempore Lucia by Miss Hall and Mrs. Stapleton and Messrs. Gregory, Russell, Buchanan and Raeth, was given in a delightful way and the audience was disappointed because these singers would not respond to an encore.

The sextet from Lucia by Miss Hall, Misses Ethel Koehler and Zora Lee, added no little pleasure to the evening's entertainment.

Miss Hattie Gibson was the accompanist and contributed materially to the great success of the program.

Those in the church choir, who took part in the concert were:

Mesdames Loaring Clark, Funk, Russell, S. B. Miller, Calhoun, Zoran, Stapleton and Holt, and Misses Stein-house, Reed, Edmonds, Lee, Bristol, Clark, Adele Miller and Jessie Miller, and Messrs. Calhoun, Thistlewood, Strohm, Buchanan, Lee, Raeth, Gregory, Haynes, Russell, Parker, Hamm and Byron and Jesse Gross.

The following were the members of the Maennerchor:

Messrs. Hasenjaeger, Day, Zoran, Thallmueller, Mansperger, Louis C.
Herbert, Paul G. Schuh, Raeth, Leis-chen, Hamm, Gunther, Kuesner, Geo.
Fischer, Halzner, Bork and Edward,
Carl and Joe Bucher.

STREET RAILWAY AT ANNA.

According to the Anna Democrat, work will soon commence on a new street railway, electric light and water works plant at that place.

Petitions for franchises will be presented to the city council at its next meeting and will no doubt be acted upon favorably.

The Illinois Central has not yet signed any of the company's petitions for franchise either for lights, waterworks or street railway, but they will probably sign the petitions granting right-of-way to the two former, along its property. At any rate there is nothing to hinder franchises being granted upon those streets upon which the signatures of a majority of property owners have been secured, and enough pressure can subsequently be brought to bear upon the Illinois Central to induce them to do the right thing.

THEBES IS PROSPEROUS

Business is Good in All Lines and the Town is Growing Rapidly.

Our little sister city, Thebes, is forging ahead, notwithstanding this is midwinter. Five railroads are running regular trains each way. Business has been continually on the increase since the opening of the bridge work.

The postoffice receipts for the last quarter amounted to $261, the largest in the history of the office. If this increase is kept up the office will be promoted to the third-class by January 1 next. Postmaster Haily C. Machin childron, Rowling & company does applications filed for new boxes when they are put in.

The State bank under the new management of Casler Norman and Assistant Cashier Murphy is doing a satisfactory business.

The large department store of Marchildron, Rowling & company, does a heavy business in all lines. Its Christmas trade beat all records. Mr. Henry Rowling and Mr. H. C. Marchildon give personal attention to the business.

The town has several fine residences that would do credit even to Cairo.
Those of C. A. Marchildon, R. F.
Brown, H. S. Rowling, H. C. Marchildon and H. S. Dexter are the finest—all being modern, up-to-date houses with all the comforts and conveniences that money can furnish.

The town has completely quieted down since the riot that occurred last Summer, which was carried on by the rougher element, employed on the bridge work. All classes of people in Thebes are indignant because certain Republican politicians from Gov-nor Yates down to a deputy sheriff, seem determined to connect some of the citizens of Thebes and vicinity with the crime.

Surgical Operation
Wrecked My Nerves.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Restored My Health.

"A few years ago I had to submit to a surgical operation which caused me severe spinal trouble. After treatment I could not gain strength because of extreme nervousness. I took everything I could hear of that was supposed to be good for my trouble but all in vain. I had not had a night's sleep in weeks, when one day one of your circulars was thrown into my yard and after reading what your Nervine had done for others, I resolved to try it. The second night after taking it I slept soundly for the first time in many months and after taking a few bottles I was completely cured. I also used the Nerve Plaster for backache with very gratifying results. I shall always be grateful for the benefits received from Dr. Miles' Restorative Remedies."—Mrs. C. W. Beaman, Savannah, Mo.

"I wish to thank you for the good your medicine has done me. It has almost worked wonders in my case. I was subject to nervous headaches for a period of thirty years.
I had doctored with several doctors and had taken a number of different kinds of patent medicines, all to no avail. I was discouraged for I could not get permanent relief. At last I began a trial of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Nerve and Liver Pills. I am now completely cured and words cannot express my thankfulness to you and your medicine. If any one wishes to write to me personally I will gladly answer their letters."—

The Effective Remedy

WASHINGTON, IOWA, April 4, 1903.
I was troubled for over a year with so scanty a flow that it was virtually suppression. A heavy cold superinduced this condition and nothing I could do seemed to help me.
The only effective remedy I ever found was Wine of Cardui. Within two weeks I felt the good effects of the medicine and after I had used 12 bottles in all I was as healthy and regular as any woman could wish to be.

My sister used it while expecting to become a mother and found that it made childbirth comparatively easy and after the child was born she found that it helped her to regain her strength.
